

The Daughtry Times®

Education through Integration™

REMAINS OF A DAY

6 years, 8 months Time it took to build the World Trade Center, from 1966 to 1973 | 1 hour, 42 minutes Time it took to destroy the towers, from the first impact to the second collapse | 180 m.p.h. - Speed at which a Boeing 707 could hit the towers but still not destroy them, under the official engineering plan | 470 m.p.h., 590 m.p.h. Estimated flight speeds of the two Boeing 767 jets that hit the towers | 0.9 Magnitude of the earthquake-like tremor caused by the impact of American Airlines Flight 11 hitting the north tower | 1800°F Estimated temperature of the fires ignited by the jet fuel | 1022°F Temperature at which steel loses half its strength; it melts at about 2500°F | 2.3 Magnitude of the tremor caused by the collapse of the north tower, measured from 21 miles away | 60 Police officers killed; 37 Port Authority, 23 N.Y.P.D. | 343 New York City fire fighters killed; 60 were off duty | 10 Bystanders killed by falling debris | 19,858 Body parts recovered from the site; 4,598 have been identified | 379,036 Ounces of gold recovered from the Bank of Nova Scotia vault (current value: $118.5 million) | 3 Auguste Rodin sculptures recovered from the rubble | 144 Rings, among the 65,000 personal items recovered from ground zero. Other items include 437 watches, 77 necklaces, 119 earrings and 80 bracelets | 4 Autographed baseballs found | 16 People who escaped the south tower from above the floors where the plane hit | 0 People who escaped the north tower from above the floors where the plane hit | 18 Survivors found in the rubble: 12 fire fighters, three police officers, three civilians. All were found by Sept. 12 | 92 Bomb threats phoned in to police in New York City on Sept. 11

"All the News That's Fit to Print"
The New York Times
 Vol. CL, No. 5474
 NEW YORK, WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 12, 2001
 75 CENTS

U.S. ATTACKED

HIJACKED JETS DESTROY TWIN TOWERS AND HIT PENTAGON IN DAY OF TERROR

A CREEPING HORROR

Buildings Burn and Fall as Onlookers Search for Elusive Safety

By N. KRISTENFIELD

In a long, agonizing day, the World Trade Center towers were destroyed by a pair of hijacked jets, and the Pentagon was hit by a third. The attacks, which occurred on Sept. 11, 2001, were the deadliest in American history. The towers, which stood for nearly 60 years, were destroyed by a pair of hijacked Boeing 767 jets. The Pentagon was hit by a Boeing 757 jet. The attacks resulted in the deaths of nearly 3,000 people. The towers were destroyed by a pair of hijacked Boeing 767 jets. The Pentagon was hit by a Boeing 757 jet. The attacks resulted in the deaths of nearly 3,000 people.

President Vows to Exact Punishment for 'Evil'

By SERGE MURKIN

President Bush vowed to exact punishment for the Sept. 11 attacks, calling them an act of "evil." He said the United States would not be intimidated by terrorism and would continue to stand for freedom and democracy. He also announced that he would sign a law to make it easier to prosecute terrorists. He said the United States would not be intimidated by terrorism and would continue to stand for freedom and democracy. He also announced that he would sign a law to make it easier to prosecute terrorists.

Awaiting the Aftershocks

Washington and Nation Plunge Into Fight With Enemy Hard to Identify and Punish

By N. KRISTENFIELD

The United States is in a state of shock and mourning. The Sept. 11 attacks have changed the way Americans think about terrorism and the world. The United States is in a state of shock and mourning. The Sept. 11 attacks have changed the way Americans think about terrorism and the world. The United States is in a state of shock and mourning. The Sept. 11 attacks have changed the way Americans think about terrorism and the world.

A Somber Bush Says Terrorism Cannot Prevail

Washington, Sept. 11 — President Bush said terrorism cannot prevail and that the United States would continue to stand for freedom and democracy.

President Bush said terrorism cannot prevail and that the United States would continue to stand for freedom and democracy. He said the United States would not be intimidated by terrorism and would continue to stand for freedom and democracy. He also announced that he would sign a law to make it easier to prosecute terrorists.

|Looting arrests in New York City on Sept. 11; by Oct. 11, 54 more had been made | $4 billion to $6 billion Expected total payout of government compensation to victims' families | $2,235,997 Government estimate of the value—before subtracting insurance, pensions or other benefits—of a 25-year-old man with one child, making $50,000 a year at the time of his death | $1.36 million Average payment to first 25 families who applied | 116,000 American flags sold by Wal-Mart on Sept. 11, 2001 | 6,400 American flags sold by Wal-Mart on Sept. 11, 2000 | 76% New York City public-school students who reported that six months later, they still frequently thought about the Sept. 11 attacks | 3.6 million Estimated number of tourists who will have visited ground zero by the end of this year

Armed solely with the substantial numerical data printed above, create ten grade level appropriate mathematics questions accompanied with an answer key comparable to the beloved Education through Integration™ for a fellow classmate to complete.

The Daughtry Times®

Sources: FEMA, N.Y.P.D., F.D.N.Y., Port Authority of New York and New Jersey, McKinsey & Co., Office of the Chief Medical Examiner, Justice Department, FBI, New York Times, USA Today, Atlantic Monthly